

FES User Day: Sheffield

Friday 15th June 2018

Registration – tea and coffee Welcome and Introductions - Alison Clarke and Prof Taylor.	9.00 - 9.30
Upper Limb FES – (Dr Praveen Kumar). Dr Kumar will present his latest research combining electrical stimulation with other upper limb techniques followed by a practical session on upper limb techniques.	9.30 - 10.00
Upper Limb Techniques Practical Session and Discussion Feedback Session (Dr Praveen Kumar) supported by Vicky Parry, Prof Taylor and Stacey Finn.	10.00 - 11.00
Tea break.	11.00 - 11.20
Odstock Medical Devices (Stacey Finn, Jon Mitton) TBC Clinician experience of using the ODFS Pace Cuff feedback and troubleshooting (Jon Mitton) Linq refresher I.4 update	11.20 - 12.30
FES and Hip Flexion Study (Emma Bretherton) A presentation of the results from studies using FES to facilitate hip flexion.	12.30 - 13.00
Lunch - a buffet lunch will be provided.	13.00 - 13.30
FES for facilitation of plantarflexion at push off (Alison Clarke).	13.30 - 14.00
Why do we use Different Waveforms and Ramps? The Neurophysiology of FES Underlying the Clinical Reasoning (Prof Taylor and Vicky Parry) A session focused on the science behind the clinical reasoning for using different waveforms, ramps etc. and an opportunity to question and debate conventional wisdom based on clinical observations.	14.00 - 14.30
Case study: Waveforms and Ramps (Becky Marshall) A presentation of a novel case study presenting with a lot of spasm activity followed by the opportunity for some debate on potential mechanism.	14.30 - 15.00
Tea break.	15.00 - 15.30
Parkinson's and FES Trial (STEPS) (Professor Paul Taylor) Professor Taylor will provide an update of the latest findings from the RFPB trial (Prof Taylor). An overview of training/carry over effect and FES in other diagnoses will also be included.	15.30 - 16.00
FES Basic Refresher Session (Optional) (Zoe Jenson, Stacey Finn, Jon Mitton) For those of you who are new to FES or have not used it for a while. An opportunity to refresh your memory on little tips and tricks.	16.00 - 16.30
End of FES User Day.	16.30

OML

Leading Rehabilitation
Through Technology

Salisbury NHS
NHS Foundation Trust